Re: Cecil Battle and Mainer
family.

Timothy Newell Pfeiffer, Esq.,
120 Broadway,
New York City.

Dear Sir:-

Cecil or Frank Battle was arrested on December 9th, 1922 for assaulting Archie B. Lee of 7 1/2 City Alley, New Brunswick, N. J. The assault taking place in front of the Simplex House, 61 Hiram Street, New Brunswick. He was arraigned before Recorder Tindell, who on December 20th, 1922 held him for the Grand Jury. He was indicted and later pleaded guilty. He received a suspended sentence and was placed on probation. The only records of addresses which the papers in this case show are that at the time of his arrest he lived at 344 Handy Street. The probation records show that he was a scavenger working at New Brunswick, Perth Amboy and Woodbridge. His father Joseph Battle resided at Shenandoah Valley, Va. In June 1923, Battle was living at 176 Delevan Street.

Mary Battle, wife of Cecil or Frank Battle was committed to the State Asylum at Trenton in 1921 on the application of Michael O'Connell, Chief of Police. Drs. J. O. Carrington and J. Warren Rice signed the certificates. Her friends &c were Cecil Battle, husband, 244 Handy Street, and Mary Mainer, mother, 288 Suydam Street. Her father's name is shown as Cornelius Payne, no address.

All these addresses are being checked up to locate the Battles and Mainers.

There are no other records of convictions against Battle in Middlesex County.

Respectfully yours.

David Thompson
